Customer Growth & Trial Distribution

- Total customers in 2020: 1,000
- Trial signups remained steady throughout the year.
- Peak in March (94), lowest in November (75).
- Customer acquisition is stable, with minor seasonal fluctuations.

Subscription Plan Preferences After Trial

1,650 total plan signups after trial (some customers switched multiple times).

- Trial Churn: 30.7% of customers canceled after the free trial.
- Pro Annual adoption: 15.6%
- Insight: Many customers prefer flexible monthly plans over long-term commitments.

Churn Rate & Customer Retention

Churn rate is the percentage of customers who cancel their subscription within a given period.

A high churn rate means many users are leaving, while a low churn rate indicates strong customer loyalty.

01 Overall churn rate (end of 2020):
23.6%

---

02 Trial churn rate:
30.7%

03 Insight:
High churn after trial → Need better engagement & retention strategies.

---

04 Possible Solutions:
Personalized offers, trial extensions, better onboarding.

Upgrade & Downgrade Trends

- Most upgrades happen within 60–90 days.
- 214 customers downgraded from Pro Monthly to Basic Monthly.
- Insight: Downgrades suggest price sensitivity or lack of perceived value in premium plans.
- Possible Solutions: Targeted retention offers, flexible pricing, added benefits.

Revenue Optimization & Business Recommendations

Pro Monthly is the top revenue driver (32.7% retention).

While Pro Annual conversion rate is low (15.6%).

Opportunities for improvement:

1. Reduce trial churn with better offers.
2. Increase Pro Annual upgrades with discounts & exclusive content.
3. Prevent downgrades through personalized retention strategies.

---

Conclusion & Final Thoughts

Foodie-Fi can improve customer retention & revenue by focusing on:

Trial user engagement & churn reduction.

Encouraging long-term plan adoption.

Addressing downgrade trends & pricing concerns.

Next Steps:

Use data-driven insights to optimize pricing, personalize offers, and strengthen customer experience.

But... it's not our work, so...
